

a One decoder, three conditioning inputs

Only the conditioning path differs. Comparisons are paired per component: T – U isolates broad retron-type information; R – T isolates information specific to the individual RT.

b Three levels of claim

